To continue with our story...

This Archangel to whom we referred in our previous video is commonly known as Lucifer. We know this is not his real name, but we do not know his real name, and to our knowledge it has never been recorded here in history. Anyone or anything that tells you what his name really is, is spreading misinformation or has been deceived. What we DO know is that he goes by many names here on Earth, and depending on where he was, who he was interacting with, and for what purpose, those names are anything from Krishna to YHVH/YeHoVaH.

Here are a few more things that we know...Enki is not always Lucifer. Lucifer is not Satan. We do not know the names of the other Archangels. Michael (or MIKH-A-EL or IM-KHAA-EL in Orion/Aryan language) is the only one we know for sure. The rest of the names mentioned in the Bible, and elsewhere, may or may not be real and may only be one being or multiple beings. The names of the Archangels presented in the Emerald Tablets are not names, but in fact frequencies. Many names are frequencies and not names as we know them. So, the names of many "demons" are frequencies, as well, and not actually the names of scary monsters. The name Jesus is not a name. The letter J is only 400-500 years old. The original spelling for this name began with the letter "I" and was pronounced like a “y”. So, why then are we told to call upon the name of Jesus when that isn’t even how the name is pronounced? It’s because there is a frequency associated with this word.

In all likelihood, EA-S-US, which means Ea (Lord of the Waters) – S (feminine) – US (singular), is probably where the name Jesus comes from. Again, this is a title using the Orion language. This would correspond to some theories that the original Jesus was actually a female. We’ll leave you to ponder that. It is not unheard of that Lucifer presented himself as BOTH male and female to humanity.

Let’s take our favorite two characters from the ancient Sumerian cuneiforms; Enlil and Enki. When we see these words, as humans will, we apply the human perspective of assigning these words as names. This is a mistake. These are TITLES, and as it is true for all titles, they are interchangeable, and we need to understand who is holding the title to understand which character we are referring to.

As a modern-day example of this, we have the Queen of England. Now, depending on what period of history we are talking about, the Queen of England could be referring to Elizabeth II (the current reigning monarch) or Elizabeth I. Just simply saying “the Queen of England” needs more clarification if we are to know exactly which Queen the story is about.

If you have read the Wes Penre Papers, you will already know that there are TWO Enlil’s. We have an Enlil senior, who is the consort of the Queen of Orion, and who is also referred to as Khan (King) Enlil. Then, we have the Queen's son, who is also Enlil, although he is the Crown Prince. Both beings hold the title of Enlil, which is indeed a title, and it means Lord of the Sky/Airways. It can be confusing because the ancient history often does not distinguish between the two and some of the acts and behaviors, we attribute to the Prince actually belong to Kahn Enlil and vice versa. These are not the same beings and we cannot just wrap everything up into one package of "Enlil", just like we cannot simply wrap everything up by saying the Queen of England. We need to know who we are talking about and who we are reading about.

Lucifer has come to be known as Enki. The reason we did not use this title is because we aren't sure if this title belongs to him right now. Enki means Lord of the Earth. Who is Lord of the Earth right now? That would be Marduk. So, in all truth, we could have been reading about Enki in some passages and assuming it was Prince Enlil's brother, when in fact, it could have been his nephew. Titles can and often get passed around depending on who is in charge. These guys LOVE their titles! Marduk is said to have at least fifty!

"What's in a name? That which we call a rose

By any other word would smell as sweet."

The above passage from Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet is simply saying that names are meaningless. If you decided to change your name today from John to Bob, you are still the same person. Humans want to ascribe so much importance to names and we think we are defined by names, when we really aren't. We also project this human way of thinking onto any and all races of beings by trying to name them and making the mistake of thinking they only ever have one name, when they have many. Humans want to make a big deal about "the Reptilians". WHICH reptilians? Do you know that there are many, many varieties of reptilian beings in our Universe? Do you know that we are born from one of those races? "Reptilians" is not actually the name of a race of beings. This is how easily humanity is manipulated and how easily disinformation is believed.

So, how do we figure out who is who when we can't rely on their names and the names we know are so easily transferred from one to another and back again? If you have completed the Fifth Level of Learning of the WPP, you will know there are only four beings present here who are pulling the strings; Lucifer, his son Marduk, Ereshkigal, and Isis, daughters of Prince En.lil/Ninurta. The entire cast of characters is played by these four, no matter what their names, no matter what their apparent motives may be, no matter what title they place on their heads (and there are MANY!), any and all scripts of this play ONLY involve these four. No human holds these titles, either. How do we tell them apart? We only need to look at and compare their behaviors.

So, how do we figure out who is who when we don't know their names and the names we know are so easily transferred from one to another and back again? We look at and compare behaviors.

One behavior that we often see is a God-type character who is sympathetic to and cares for humanity. He cared so much for humanity that there have been many times when he has saved them! This is a God with whom "all things are possible". Let's look at some scriptures that tell us how much God loves us:

Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Jeremiah 31:3 "The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying: 'I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness.'"

Zephania 3:17 "The LORD your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in his love he will no longer rebuke you but will rejoice over you with singing."

These are just a few passages from the Old Testament that show a loving God who cares for humanity like his children. According to what has been written, we ARE his children, and he shows us that this is how he thinks of us. So, when pondering about why we are given so much information to help us spiritually grow, become enlightened, and develop our "fruits" of the Spirit, we suggest that he has a VERY strong interest in how well we succeed here. He WANTS us to succeed.

Why is Lucifer so concerned with our Spiritual growth? Why would he be trying to help humanity? Afterall, he is responsible for all the bad things that are happening to humanity, isn't he? Do you remember our series on Thoth? When you read the writings of Thoth, this information is incredibly mind-expanding! Doesn't the Bible encourage humanity to live heart-centered lives with love and Spiritual awareness, as well? Why would he help us? Why not just let humanity starve, fight to death, and perish in any number of cataclysmic events that we have evidence of through the millennia?

Let's look at what happened and try to figure out what his motive might be. Remember, he was not given humanity as the Experiment that he was promised. If your parents had told you that you were the most capable and highly skilled person for a task, but then took that task away from you and gave it to your brother, telling you that they had changed their minds and they now felt that you were, in fact, NOT the most capable for the job, wouldn't you feel that you had something to prove? Wouldn't you feel like you had to save face in front of your entire family to prove them all wrong and that this task should have been given to you in the first place? What if the reward for doing this task was to prove you deserved to be the rightful heir as the Crown Prince to a Queendom? Wouldn't you have a very large investment in how well you completed this task?

Before you think we are suggesting that we should all have sympathetic feelings for this Archangel, who displays loving acts toward humanity, allow us to say that there is an agenda behind this and ANY material that is guiding humanity to embrace "a Heavenly Father is coming from this Archangel," you can be sure.

We are being used because he has something to prove. He would also have us all gathered unto him, rather than back to our place within the cosmos, as is intended. Why would he do that? Because there may come a time when we are asked about what we've experienced here. There may come a time when he might have to stand in judgement and prove whether he was a benefit to humanity or not. As he is the seeming origin of narcissism, he would treat us like any narcissist would treat his own children; as extensions of himself only; as objects to own. He sees our success as HIS success. It is not OUR achievements, but rather his, because without him we can do nothing, in his opinion. This attitude is throughout all scripture. Scripture tells us how capable "God" really thinks we are on our own. How many times have you heard or read that "only through God" we can succeed?" "Look how well I have done in creating an alternate version of your humanity, by remaking them in my glorious image!" he might say. "They couldn't do it without me." Perhaps this is the true beginning of the Hegelian Dialectic (Problem-Reaction-Solution).

Therefore, on this planet, we have a confused humanity, who is receiving all sorts of enlightening, expanding, and spiritual lessons and who are neglecting to recognize that the serpent's most valuable attribute in the Garden of Eden was his ability to seduce. Lucifer is the silver-tongued serpent. Do you think he will sway humanity into his fold with insults, injury, and curses? No, he will win us over with words of love, kindness, and flattery. To a humanity who is suffering, who better to turn to than our loving Father to give us comfort? Doesn't he tell us to do just that?

Do you know that narcissistic fathers love to scare their children just to have that child cling to them out of need for protection? What a terrible way to secure narcissistic supply! A narcissistic father will set a child on a ledge just so that child will desperately wrap their arms around the father for safety. The narcissistic father feels loved in this way. Narcissists LOVE to make their sources of supply afraid of everything, only so they can give or deny security to their chosen sources. Do you see how narcissism is important? Do you understand now why we need to learn how it works? Can you see how this is ALL connected?

Lucifer is not bent on the destruction of humanity. No. He cannot reclaim his position in the stars without us. Therefore, he is going to give humanity as much help as needed to rise to our fullest potential. Like any narcissist, he wants our love and devotion. He wants to be exalted by humanity, so he can show all those who thought he was not good enough that not only was he good enough, but humanity has CHOSEN HIM.

There are many very knowledgeable and good-hearted people contributing to the awakening of humanity right now. There are many Archangels and messengers, guides and ET contacts, bringing and giving information for the ascension, rescue, and transformation of the human soul group. Just because something feels good or appears good does not mean it IS good. We have a master seducer at work here, whose fate rests in the hands of humanity. If you have an Angel, or an Arcturian, or a Spirit Guide, or ANY other source that is NOT YOU whispering in your ear, how can you be sure that you are not being fooled? Would you know an Archangel if you met one? Can you pick an Arcturian out of a crowd? How do you know the being who is communicating to you can be trusted? Don't take candy from strangers. All you need is yourself. The only one you can depend on for your own salvation is yourself.

Humanity is being divided into the awakened and the asleep, and that chasm is growing wider. We want to suggest that humanity has more than two choices. "When God closes a door, he always opens a window." We suggest you not take either choice, but rather make your own way, create your own passage, and break through the wall.

If Lucifer is one choice, then who is the other? Marduk, the current reigning En.ki.
